

FANWOOD – SCOTCH PLAINS CONSOLIDATION STUDY COMMISSION

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the current commissioners of the Consolidation Study Commission of Fanwood and Scotch Plains will meet on Wednesday May 22, 2013 at 8:00 P.M. in the Board of Education building located at Evergreen and Cedar Avenue in Scotch Plains to elect two additional commissioners, one from each municipality. All applicants must submit resumes by May 17, 2013 through the contact below. Candidates will be interviewed. The meeting is open to the public.

The Commission's purpose is to have a study prepared to see if consolidating Scotch Plains and Fanwood would create a more efficient and cost effective government. The ten commissioners will elect officers, determine funding and select an organization to conduct a study at later meetings.
